MESSAGE

University is the venue where constant learning, growth and enrichment on all frontiers of knowledge takes place. It is the highest seat of learning and dissemination of all knowledge. No other place is more suited for what may be termed as global interaction amongst educationists, intellectuals and the aspiring youth.

It is with an intention of imparting quality and job-oriented education to students from across the country that we had introduced Self Supporting Programmes in this University way back in 1991 in addition to regular courses which commenced with the establishment of this university in the year 1968. The small sapling planted then has now transformed into a huge, shady and fruitful tree. We now have a number of regular and self supporting courses that cater to the needs of students from almost all disciplines. Whereas the regular courses inspire the students to make their career in higher education the self supporting programmes are market oriented and socially useful. Thus all the Courses have made a positive impact on the overall development of the University in general and students in particular under the able guidance of well versed highly qualified teaching faculty

I give my blessings and best wishes on the occasion of the publication of the admission brochure of our University.

It is a matter of extreme pleasure that the admission brochure of the University is being published. Since its foundation (July 1968), this University has been steadily moving ahead on the path of progress successfully. Teaching of regular courses in this University commenced from the Seventies. These regular courses which grew over the years, became a launching pad for the initiation of job oriented self supporting programmes.

These programmes were introduced with a view to impart professional and job-oriented knowledge & training to our young and upcoming academicians, scientists, managers and sportspersons. Presently, the number of regular and self supporting courses being taught here has reached almost sixty five. These courses cover almost all the streams of knowledge.

I extend my hearty and warm wishes for the bright future of the students aspiring to take admission in this University.

It is for the first time that our University is bringing out a Joint Admission brochure of its Regular and Self Supporting Courses. In addition to the teaching of regular courses which began in the late seventies in this University, the first Self Supporting Programme was introduced in the year 1991. I have been a witness to the steady growth and development of the various courses being run by this University. As Dean, Students' Welfare it is a matter of great pride for me that the quality of education being imparted to the students and the variety of courses being run by our University is excellent. The placement graph of the students passing out of this university is also on a steady rise.

On the occasion I extend my best wishes to all concerned and especially to the students of this University.

ABOUT REWA CITY

All over the world, Rewa is known as the “land of white tigers”. as the first and ever white tiger was found in Rewa. It was named Mohan by the then ruling king Maharaja Martand Singh. Mohan's progeny is now spread all over the world. Rewa, located on the central Vindhya Plateau was the capital of the Princely State of Rewa from the beginning of the 17th Century A.D. The name Rewa is derived from 'Reva' the ancient name of the sacred river Narmada. Rewa also had the honour of being the capital of Vindhya Pradesh. Rewa is the only place in the world where beautiful handicrafts are made from beetle nuts (Supari). Big and beautiful handicrafts like the auspicious Ganesh Idol, Shiv temple, Lord Krishna, Tribal Couples, Taj Mahal, Peacocks, Pens, Sticks etc. are made from these small dried nuts. The fineness of the craft is such that joints are not at all visible on the finished work.

At present, Rewa is a divisional head quarter and an important centre for education and culture in Central India. It has the privilege of having the Sainik School, which is only one in each state. This region is developing fast as an industrial belt too, especially for the production of Cement, Cables, Optical Fibers, Refined Vegetable Oil and Electricity Generation. With the presence of giants like NTPC, NCL, Jaypee Cement, ACC Cement, Prism Cement, Birla Ericsson for years and the entrance of multinational companies like Essar Group, Reliance, KJS Cements and others, this region is destined to be one of the most prominent centers of commercial and economic activity in the state of Madhya Pradesh and the Central India. The commissioning of Bansagar Dam Project and the fast spread of its canal network in the region is destined to rewrite the fortune of this region.

Bandhav Garh (160 km, 3 hrs) and Khajuraho (165 km, 4 hrs) are the near by International Tourism Centres for Wild Life and Heritage Tourism, respectively. While Maihar (65 km; 90 min), Chitrkoot (150 km; 3 hrs) and Vindhyavasini (250 km; 4 hrs 30 min) are the sacred places of pilgrimage in this region.

The city can be approached from Satna which is 52 km from this place and is on Howrah-Bombay route. It can also be reached through Allahabad which is nearly 130 km and a three hours drive by road. Rewa is well connected by road and rail. There are direct trains to New Delhi, Bhopal, Jabalpur and Bilaspur initiating from this place. Now, there is also an air connection between Rewa and Bhopal.

AWADHESH PRATAP SINGH VISHWAVIDYALAYA, REWA

Establishment:

The establishment of a university at Rewa was proposed in 1948 by Capt. Awadhesh Pratap Singh, a national leader and the first Prime Minister of Vindhya Pradesh. The University is, therefore, named after him to give recognition to his vision. It is called Awadhesh Pratap Singh University, Rewa, to give reality to Capt. Singh's vision. An ordinance was promulgated on June, 27, 1968 which was ratified by the Act to State Legislature, which in turn was given assent by the Governor on 17 October, 1969. The university is a member of the All India University Association (AIU) and All Common Wealth Association of Universities (ACU).

Site and Jurisdiction :

Rewa city with a population of Five lakh is located in the heart of India. It is 2131 kms, East of Bombay and 835 kms. South of Delhi. From Satna, a Central Railway Station on the Calcutta-Bombay line, it is about 51 kms.

The academic jurisdiction of the University extends to seven districts of Madhya Pradesh, Rewa, Satna, Sidhi, Singrauli, Shahdol, Anuppur & Umariya. 147 colleges, including a college each for Medicine, Nursing and Ayurved, are affiliated to the University.

The Academic Council constitutes Faculties and Boards of Studies to prepare papers, syllabi and also recommends ordinances, concerning admission to examinations and degrees.

University Campus:

Spread over 246.20 acres, the campus is about 5 km. from the main city on the Rewa-Sirmour Road. The University buildings include an Administrative Block, Department of Environmental Biology, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, A Humanities Block, Dept. of Psychology, Ambedkar Bhawan, Life Long Learning Dept., Advait Vedant Dept., Antar Bharti Building, Community Hall, Biotechnology Dept., Law Dept., D.E.C Building, M.B.A. Dept., Computer Centre, USIC Building, Library, Guest House, Faculty Hostel, Arjun Student Home, A Gymnasium Hall, Yoga Hall, A Women's Common Room, A separate Building for Bank, A University Auditorium, Two hostels, One for boys and another for girls. The campus has two separate colonies, one for Teachers and other for Employees of the University. Primary Health Centre Building is also established within the campus. A well equipped Intermediate School ( Class I to Class XII ) is also established in the campus for the Children of University Employees.

Our University is a fine example of excellent management of higher education in limited resources. With low paying capacity of the students, faculty crunch and financial limitations, our University is imparting quality education to students in an exemplary manner. Our students are adorning positions across the globe. We act as 'friend, philosopher and guide' for our students. We motivate and inspire them to study well. Our coaching and counselling initiatives have helped thousands of students. A University is not made of concrete structures only; it is the spirit that guides the institution which really matters. Under the present leadership of our Honourable Vice-Chancellor Prof. R.M. Mishra , the University is making progress by leaps & bounds.

The Centre has been set up with a vision to enhance the pragmatic utilization of Biotechnological theories and principles, in bringing up a healthy life of human beings. At the centre, the students are trained and equipped with the most modern tools and equipments to conserve the biodiversity of plants & animals. The first batch of M.Sc. Biotechnology started in Jan. 1999 with an intake of 15 students. Encouraged with the popularity and success of the course the intake of the has been increased to 40 including 5 seats each for payment and sponsored categories.

The students of Biotechnology get an opportunity to learn the same syllabus as in any other universiies in India. Due to the rapid change in the field of Biotechnology, we modify the syllabus from time to time. The students of Biotechnology are exposed to the latest technologies in the field of Molecular Biology, Immunology and Recombinant DNA Technology. They also get the knowledge of computer (Theory and Practical of recent softwares).

Therefore, this department is trying its level best to give the recnt theories and practical knowledge in the field of Biotechnology, so that the students can exploit the field for gain and can serve the human race.

Training for the Project Work :

The Centre for Biotechnology has its MOU with Central Institute of Medicinal and Aromatic plants, Lucknow, National Bureau of Fish Genetic Resources Lucknow, Mango Research Institute Lucknow, so that the students can do their work with a suitable stipend. The centre recommends the names of students in different National Laboratories and industries for the project work. The students get the most advanced practical training in these institutes.

(B) Centre for Environmental Science :

M.Sc.Environmental Science :

In the last few decades the impact of human activies on environment has become more accelarated and pronounced. Human beings need to be educated to understand, solve and prevent environment related hazards. Considering the seriousness of environmental problems, the School of Environmental Biology established the centre for Environmental Science with the initiation of M.Sc. in Environmental Science.

M.Sc. Environmental Science is a 2 year (4 Semester) course. Minimum qualification for admission to this course is B.Sc. with Biology group or B.Sc.Agriculture with 50% marks in theory.

M.Phil. Environmental Science :

Subsequently M.Phil. in Environmental Science (a one year/2 Sem. Course) was introduced in the year 1999-2000. This course has been designed as an inter-disciplinary capsule covering environmental aspects of Science and Biology related subjects.

2. Department of Physics

"Vikram Space Physics Centre" established in the form of a nucleus by UGC, New Delhi during the fourth five year plan transformed into full fledged Physics Department in the year 1982-83 on the basis of its performance and achievements in the area of Cosmic Rays and Interplanetary Physics. The department came into existence after due concurrence of MP State Government to impart training to students in the front line areas of Cosmic Rays and Interplanetary Physics since 1982-83. The Department of Physics has taken several strides in P.G. level teaching and research. Over the years, it has incorporated specializations related to Electronics, Materials Science and Informatics in the curriculum at the M.Sc. and M.Phil. level. The UGC New Delhi chose Department of Physics to organize refresher courses for several years. The students have brought laurels to the department by qualifying in competitive examinations of diverse natures (MPPSC, MPSLET, NET, UPPSC, BARC etc.) and getting placements in various prestigious organizations.

Presently the department has an intake of 35 students for the M.Sc Physics Programme. More than 50 research students have obtained Ph. D. degree since the inception of the department in. More than 20 students are presently working for their Ph. D.degree research in the department.

4. Department of Chemistry*Genesis :

The Department of Chemistry of A.P.S. University, was established in 1984, with the basic aim to cater to the needs of the students of Vindhya Region socially and economically backward part of Central India. This region is particularly rich in natural resources. Our former Prime Minister (Late) Mrs. Indira Gandhi named it as the Cement Belt and Planned to run "Cement Express" from Delhi to connect it to the power Capital of the Country i.e. "Shaktinagar" in Singrauli area. Situated on the border of UP & MP the region is rich in natural resources like limestone, bauxite, coal, diamond, granite and iron etc. Based on these resources major industries like cement, aluminum, coal, Power and paper industries are operating over the past fifty years. Chemical Science is the backbone of these major industries. Most of such industrial units are in the university jurisdiction and the department of Chemistry is preparing trained and skilled human resources for all these.

The department has been recognised by the UGC, New Delhi for its academic pursuits and special assistance (SAP-DRS) has been sanctioned for the department in the year 2006.

Despite all natural resources and manpower, the younger generation of the region lacked technical skills and the exploitation of the resources available. Local stalwarts and academicians felt that by providing proper guidance, quality teaching and technical know-how, this region can be developed and brought in the main stream of the country. With these objectives the then Vice-Chancellor Prof. Hira Lal Nigam, a renowned Inorganic Chemist, took all the pains to establish a Department of Chemistry in this University. Postgraduate teaching and research programme were undertaken by the department to fulfill the aims and goals of the department.
